

DATA PROTECTION

1. The Barrister is a data controller for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679) and Data Protection Act 2018 and is bound by the Regulation and the Act amongst other things, to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure an appropriate level of security of personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage. The Barrister is entitled to process (which includes obtaining, consulting, holding, using and disclosing) personal data of the Lay Client, the Authorised Person and others: to enable him to provide the Services; to liaise with the Authorised Person in respect of the Lay Client's case or on the Lay Client's behalf; to pursue his legitimate interests, including maintaining and updating client records, producing management data, preventing crime, and publicising his activities as set out in clause 5.5 above, except where those interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data; and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements to which he is subject.
2. The Barrister will process personal data in accordance with the Barrister's privacy notice.
3. The Lay Client and the Authorised Person each have, subject to the exemptions provided in the Regulation and the Act;
 - 3.1. the right of access to their personal data
 - 3.1.1. for the purpose of rectification or erasure of their personal data or restriction of processing concerning the data subject or to object to processing;
 - 3.1.2. to exercise their right to data portability;
 - 3.2. the right to withdraw consent to the processing of personal data (it being understood that, in the event of such withdrawal of consent, the Barrister may no longer be able to continue to act and that the Barrister may continue to process the personal data for purposes which are permitted by law notwithstanding the withdrawal of consent);
 - 3.3. the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner.
 - 3.4. The Authorised Person consents to the processing of his personal data in accordance with paragraphs 1.1 and 1.2 hereof and hereby warrants [and undertakes] that he has informed the Lay Client of the processing by the Barrister of the personal data in accordance with paragraphs 1.1 and 1.2, has provided a copy of these terms to the Lay Client, and has obtained a written confirmation from the Lay Client recording both the consent from the Lay Client to the processing for the purposes specified paragraphs 1.1 and 1.2 and the acknowledgement from the lay client that he has been notified of his rights under clause 1.3, which confirmation the Authorised Person undertakes to produce upon demand.
